

JUNTURA NEWS NOTES

William Hanley, Addison Bennett and Frank Foster arrived in Juntura from Burns on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Bennett of the Portland Oregonian came out to write some articles about Eastern Oregon. Congressman Sinnott came in on Wednesday's train and the party remained over to meet him as he was on his way to Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Propat arrived Sunday from Ontario en route to Klamath Falls where they expect to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Propat visited with old friends here until Monday afternoon when they left for Burns.

Mr. Garrison of Nyssa was in town last week and brought 145 head of cattle home from the Jones Co., and all of the Goodman & Friesz steers to take below to his ranch.

Ed. Stallard, Henry Richardson and Russell Robertson were in town the last of the week with the Stallard and Robertson cattle which had been sold to F. M. Beck and B. C. Nickerson.

Mrs. C. A. Wetterstrom accompanied by her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. George Buchanan returned the last of the week from a few days spent in John Day.

Mrs. Martha Micky of Barren Valley has spent several days in town during the last week visiting with her niece Mrs. Roy Buchanan and waiting for her husband to arrive with some horses which he has sold.

A. A. Traugott, a real estate man from Burns was in town last Friday on business.

George Riley and wife of Drewsey were in town last Thursday and remained over till Friday to take in the picture show.

Little Mary Gail Goodman is suffering from an attack of the mumps, and Mrs. Gus Friesz who has been similarly afflicted has recovered sufficiently to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baer of Calamity are visiting at the Woodward ranch this week. The Payette Sheep Co. shipped out about seventeen carloads of sheep during the week to their pastures at Arlington Oregon.

Mrs. George Kelly of Drewsey returned from a few days spent in Vale the last of the week.

Father O'Connor came in to Juntura last Friday in his car from Drewsey where he had driven from Ontario. He left immediately for Beulah where he spent the night before preceding on his return journey. He was accompanied by Fred Kauphusman who spent the week-end at the Murphy ranch.

Forest Jones made a trip to Jonesboro last week and was accompanied home by Jimmie Jones who remained in town for a few days.

Carl Riley was a Juntura visitor last week from Boise.

H. D. Churchill was a Riverside visitor last Saturday furnishing music for the dance there on Saturday night.

Among those who went from here to attend the Lyceum at Drewsey on Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Upson and daughter, Miss Christie Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Jones.

Having an open date, the McAllister Trio of the Ellison-White Bureau, gave their program here on Monday night. Juntura people were grateful for the opportunity of hearing this high-grade entertainment, and the concert was well attended considering that there had been no advertising.

Daniel Gallagher left on Tuesday afternoon in his car to take the Lyceum Co. to Burns, returning with them early Wednesday morning in time for the Ontario train.

John Hoffman and Forrest Jones made a trip to the Farness place above Drewsey on Monday.

M. L. Davis was a Juntura visitor on Sunday, having brought the Lyceum Co. down after their engagement there.

Walter Sklens and George Baker went deer hunting to the head of Cottonwood creek on Friday. They encountered about six inches of snow up in that vicinity, and having forgotten to take their tire chains along they were forced to abandon their car and walked in to the Altnow ranch, a distance of about twenty-five miles. They secured a car here which brought them home. They are hoping to bring some game on their next trip.

Jim Raycraft, manager of the Inter-mountain Telephone Co. of Burns and Leland Fry were in town last week looking over the telephone lines.

"Tex" Martin has been here during the week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Roy Buchanan. He has sold his ranch near Boise and expects to leave soon for Canada.

Carl Kuhne returned on Friday from a visit of a few days in Ontario.

Dr. Fleming, optometrist of Boise, arrived in Juntura on Tuesday to attend to professional business.
